Saving Expensive Ink.

An economy in expensive drawing ink, ordinarily used with a ruling pen off the taste considerably like a is effected by substituting common We have this information writing ink for the drawing ink on firsther, says the Chronicle, and it's many kinds of work in which permanence is not a special factor, says Most of the old settlers have given Popular Mechanics Magazine. A convenience, in using this substitute lake in the ordinary containers; is: to insert a pen point by the pointed end fried locusts. A few have ventured into the bottle cork. This provides a handy ruling-pen filler, similar to the usual quill stoppers.

Squirrel's Pathetic Search.

In moving some quilts in the cottage of Fred Hayden of Northwest Abbot, Me., five little squirrels were spilled on the floor, one of them being killed. The mother squirrel was quickly on the scene, taking one at a time and, hastening upstairs with it. The fourth one she dropped at the foot of the stairs and rushed back with-frantic; haste, thoroughly looking over the contents of the room for the fifth one. She even climbed to the waists of the men and smelled their hands in her search for her lost bahy. Boston Globe,

Beauty and Service.

A real woman can make a home in a several desert out of a dry goods box or in a canteen in France. But do not think that she does it by the wave of a magic wand. She does it because she gives her heart and hands and head to it; because she rises early and works late; because she loves beauty as she does her own life, and because she realizes that service is its handmald.-New York Evening Mail.

Manliness and Art.

Art is a manly business, if ever any human occupation could be called manly, for the utmost efforts of the strongest men are needed for success in it.-P. G. Hamerton.
